Activity 1: World Oceans Day

Objectives: To instill a sense of responsibility and understanding among cadets and the public about the challenges that our oceans are facing and need to act collectively for addressing the issues and to protect them.

Description: World Oceans Day is an international day that takes place annually on 8 June. It provides an opportunity to remember the crucial role played by the oceans in maintaining life on Earth. About 70 per cent of the Earth's surface is covered by Oceans and are the lifeblood of our planet. They regulate the climate, provide food and oxygen, and are home to an incredible variety of marine life. However, our seas face strong threats from human activities, habitat destruction, and climate change. The theme of this year's World Ocean Day emphasizes the necessity of a global effort to reverse these trends and protect the invaluable resource that is our planet's oceans. In this context, 40 NCC cadets of GCW(A), Guntur took part in the observance of World Oceans Day-2023 on 08-06-2023. NCC cadets have conducted a rally from College to Gandhi park by giving slogans and exhibiting placards made by the cadets.

Outcome: Fostered ocean literacy and increased awareness about the importance of oceans and their connection to all aspects of human life, particularly for younger generations to build a sustainable future.

Activity 2: 9th International Day of Yoga-2023

Objectives: In NCC, Yoga Day holds paramount importance which integrates physical fitness with mental resilience. Through yoga, cadets cultivate discipline, focus, and a sense of unity. Embracing yoga's holistic approach, NCC promotes overall well-being and character development. On this day, cadets join in collective practice, fostering camaraderie and a spirit of service. Ninth International Day of yoga 2023 celebrations were held at Government college for women (A), Guntur on 21-06-2023.

Description: Yoga Day is a day of mindful practice and unity, marked by collective yoga sessions. In collaboration with NSS units, NCC Cadets gathered to engage in various yoga poses and breathing exercises, fostering physical and mental well-being in the presence of Yoga Guru. This observance highlighted the importance of holistic health and discipline within the organization. Through yoga, NCC promoted harmony, resilience, and a strong sense of camaraderie among its members. 58 NCC Cadets from our college attended and participated in performing various yoga asanas organized by GCW(A), Guntur in the view of the International Day of yoga 2023 celebrations on 21st June 2023.

Outcome: Got encouraged to abhyas Yoga and make it as a part in their daily life which will eventually help to overcome physical and mental stress.

Activity 3: Combined Annual Training Camp (CATC)-V

Objectives: To equip the cadets with the drill, arm drill, leadership skills required to appear for the certificate exams

Description: One Cadet from our college attended Combined Annual Training Camp CATC-V at VRS & YRN COLLEGE (Chirala), Andhra Pradesh from 11-07-2023 to 20-07-2023. This camp was conducted to select the cadets for Inter group firing competitions, and to improve drill, arms drill and leadership qualities. Inter-squad competitions were organized to create interest and competitive spirit amongst cadets.

Outcome: Acquired basic knowledge and skills required to appear for the B & C exams. Also the Cdt got good training for participating in inter-Battalion competition.

Activity 4: B and C Certificate distribution

Objectives: To recognize and celebrate the accomplishments of the cadets who successfully passed their NCC certificate examinations and to motivate other cadets to strive for similar achievements and foster a culture of excellence.

Description: The certificate distribution event was organized to honor the achievements of cadets who had successfully cleared their B and C-NCC certificate examinations. The B-certificate distribution was organized in seminar hall at GCW (A), Guntur in presence of In-charge Principle, ANO and PI staff whereas the C-certificate distribution was organized at Battalion office in presence of Commanding officer and other staff. The certificates were distributed by the dignitaries, emphasizing the significance of the accomplishment and acknowledging the hard work and dedication put in by the cadets to attain their respective passing grade.

C-Certificate Result: 10 cadets have passed out of 18 (55.5%)

B-Certificate Result: 30 cadets have passed out of 34 (88.2%)

Outcome: The certificate distribution event for B and C-NCC certificate exam passed students was instrumental in recognizing the achievements of the cadets and fostering a culture of excellence, inspired a sense of pride and motivation within the NCC unit.

Activity 5: Meri Mati Mera Desh Campaign

Objectives: To inspire cadets to become stewards of their land and champions of national unity and environmental sustainability.

Description: Meri Mati Mera Desh programme was envisaged as the culminating event of 'Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav' that was started on 12th March 2021 to celebrate 75 years of India's independence. This campaign aims to pay tribute to our beloved 'Motherland' and the courageous 'Veers' who have made the supreme sacrifice for our nation. The MERI MATI MERA DESH CAMPAIGN in NCC is a multifaceted initiative aimed at nurturing a strong bond between cadets and their homeland. The campaign serves as a platform for cadets to express their patriotism and commitment to preserve India's legacy for future generations. 60 NCC cadets of GCW(A), Guntur participated in performing various activities like Panch Pran Pledge (five resolves given by our honorable PM) includes a resolve of developed India, removing any trace of the colonial mindset, taking pride in our legacy, our strength of unity, and fulfilling the duties of citizens with honesty by holding the soil in their hands.

Outcome: Cadets together as a massive crowd promoted national unity and integration remembered and acknowledged the contribution of freedom fighters who sacrificed their life's to secure India's Independence.

Meri Maati Mera Desh

Activity 6: 76th Independence Day Celebrations

Objectives: To celebrate national festivals as a token of gratitude to the freedom fighters and to inculcate the spirit of national integration and communal harmony among the cadets

Description: The 76th Independence Day Celebration at GCW(A), Guntur showcased the dedication of students and staff to the nation's values. The programme featured flag hoisting ceremonies, parades, and cultural performances, highlighting patriotism and discipline. Cadets participated in drill and marches, embodying the spirit of freedom and unity. A total of 43 NCC cadets performed a parade drill on 15th August 2023, saluting the national flag hoisted by the college Principal, Dr. V. R. Jyotsna Kumari. The principal and staff also felicitated freedom fighter Sri. Reddy for his selfless service to the country. The event brought teaching and non-teaching staff, students, and NCC cadets together to celebrate the national festival. It served as a reminder of India's rich heritage and honored the sacrifices of freedom fighters. Through speeches and activities, participants paid homage to the nation's values and principles.

Outcome: The celebration was a vibrant and patriotic affair, fostering a sense of collective pride and unity. Overall, it was a grand event that reflected the deep-rooted commitment to the nation among the college community.

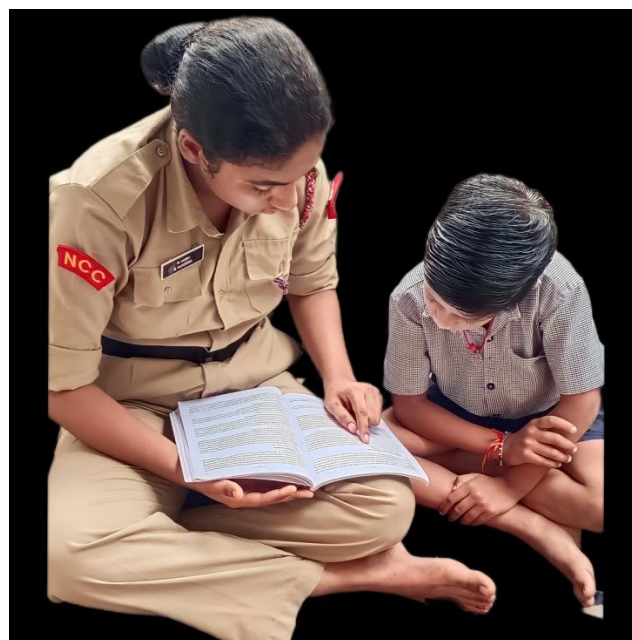

Activity 7: Each One Teach One on The Occasion of Teachers Day

Objectives: To promote the spirit of mentorship and knowledge-sharing among cadets. It aims to encourage cadets to impart their skills and knowledge to their peers or juniors, fostering a culture of learning and mutual support within the organization.

Description: "Each one teach one" is a motivation for the educated class to understand their moral and social responsibility to teach at least one which makes a big difference in society. Through this initiative, cadets develop leadership qualities, communication skills, and a sense of responsibility towards their fellow cadet's academic and personal growth. This also honors the invaluable contributions of teachers and mentors in shaping the lives of students, promoting gratitude and respect for the teaching profession. Ultimately, it aims to create a supportive learning environment where cadets can thrive academically and personally. 35 NCC cadets have effectively participated in this event on 05-09-2023 by teaching others regarding various concepts/issues. Irrespective of age, they have captivated the students and shared their knowledge.

Outcome: The programme honored the ethos of Teacher's Day by recognizing the importance of mentorship and celebrating the invaluable contributions of teachers and mentors in shaping future leaders. Ultimately, "Each One Teach One" promotes a culture of sharing knowledge, continuous learning and growth.

Activity 8: Pedal for freedom

Objective: To raise awareness on critical issues such as human trafficking, Prevention of Sexual Harassment (PoSH), adolescent education, and access to justice among public by exploiting the power of community engagement, physical activity, and education to drive positive change championed by the students.

Description: A team of multi-talented, versatile 16 students from various Govt. Degree Colleges were participated in this programme where two of our GCW(A), Guntur NCC cadets are involved. The inaugural function of the 'Pedal for Freedom'23 Cycle Rally Event was organized at GCW (A) Guntur on 20th September 2023. The event commenced with guests being received with bouquets, followed by the ceremonial lighting of the lamp. A lively flash mob performance by the rally students added to the energetic atmosphere. Dr. Pola Bhaskar I.A.S, Commissioner of Collegiate Education, delivered an introductory address, after which the cycle campaign was officially flagged off by the guests. Dignitaries then addressed the audience, and the guests were felicitated for their presence and contributions. Dr. V. R. Jyotsna Kumari, Principal, GCW(A) Guntur, Dr. Pola Bhaskar I.A.S, Dr. Ch. Tulasi, Academic Guidance Officer of Collegiate Education, Ms. Chrysolite, Director of Red Rope, Smt. Manjula, Joint Director of APSACS, and Smt. K.G.V. Saritha, Additional S.P of AP CID have participated in the program.

After the inaugural session, the team of 16 students under the guidance of Ms. Chrysolite, Director of Red Rope, embarked on a rally from Chirala to Ananthapur, halting at various locations like Ongole, Nellore, Madanapalli, Rayachoti, and Kadapa. They conducted activities including a bicycle rally symbolizing freedom and justice, awareness sessions on human trafficking, PoSH, adolescent education, and access to justice, and engaging creative arts performances like skits and flash mobs to draw attention to key issues.

Outcome: "Pedal for Freedom" transcended being just an event; it became a catalyst for change and a celebration of our dedication to justice and empowerment. It fostered a community dedicated to championing human rights, advocating for justice, and securing a brighter future for adolescents.

Activity 10: Observance of Gandhi Jayanthi

Objective: To commemorate the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation. It aims to promote Gandhian principles of non-violence, truth, and communal harmony among cadets

Description: Gandhi Jayanthi serves as an opportunity to reflect on the relevance of Gandhian philosophy in contemporary society and its role in nation-building. Ultimately, it strives to cultivate a sense of social responsibility and ethical leadership among cadets. Activities related to social service are designed to motivate and inspire cadets to actively participate in the betterment of their social and physical surroundings and to focus their energies on the task of nation building. Under the pretext of swachh Bharat mission, our cadets cleaned the status of Mahatma Gandhi. It was a cleanliness drive organized by 52 NCC cadets on 1-10-2023. Cadets participated in rally to educate the importance of this mission.

Outcome: Created heightened awareness and appreciation of Mahatma Gandhi's principles and contributions to India's freedom struggle. Cadets developed a deeper understanding of non-violence, truth, and communal harmony, fostering a culture of peace and unity within the organization.

Activity 11: All India Rock Climbing Training Camp Girls (2023)

Objectives: To enhance the physical fitness levels of cadets and to equip with mountaineering skills, walky talky operation, first aid etc.

Description: Adventure training in the NCC provides knowledge to cadets of the topography as well as experience of different weather conditions and adventurous living under camp conditions. The whole aim is to inculcate a spirit of adventure, explorative inquisitiveness, develop stamina, endurance, discipline and team spirit amongst NCC cadets. One of our GCW NCC cadets got the opportunity and attended “Rock climbing Training Camp Girls (2023) at Gwalior” from 09 Oct. 2023 to 20 Oct. 2023. Cadets from all over India participated in this activity under the officer’s, staff and ANO’s guidance.

Activity 15: Communal Harmony Campaign Week and Flag Day 2023

Objective: To offer financial assistance to children who have been orphaned or left destitute as a result of communal, caste, ethnic, or terrorist violence, ensuring their care, education, and training. Also to pay tribute to the sacrifices made by servicemen and gather funds to aid in the rehabilitation of families affected by the loss of martyrs and war victims, as well as to support the well-being of serving personnel and their dependents.

Description: The National Foundation for Communal Harmony (NFCH) annually observes the Communal Harmony Campaign and Fundraising Week from November 19th to 25th, with the last working day dedicated as Flag Day. NCC cadets from GCW(A), Guntur, distributed promotional materials such as posters, flag stickers and gathered voluntary donations from staff, students and public. Additionally, the NCC unit observed Armed Forces Flag Day to honor the memory of soldiers who made the ultimate sacrifice for the nation. On November 25th, 2023, contributions were collected from faculty, students, and members of the community for the "ARMED FORCES FLAG DAY FUND" (AFFDF), aimed at supporting widows of veterans, disabled serving soldiers, and their dependents. 55 NCC cadets have campaigned and provided wide publicity for sensitizing faculty, students and public about the need for fostering communal harmony, national integration and fraternity. A total of 10,250/- rupees were collected and deposited through the bank to the SBI Bank account of National Foundation for Communal Harmony in New Delhi with the account number 10569548047.

Outcome: Created awareness, successfully engaged in promotional activities and collected fund by raising voluntary donations, culminating in a total collection of 10,250/- rupees (Ten thousand two hundred and fifty rupees) deposited into the NFCH's SBI Bank account in New Delhi, emphasizing the importance of fostering communal harmony and supporting those affected by conflict.

Activity 16: Constitution Day celebrations

Objectives: to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution and promote awareness of its principles among cadets. It aims to instill a sense of pride in India's democratic values and constitutional rights.

Description: Constitution Day is observed annually on November 26th to honor the adoption of the Constitution of India, renowned as the world's longest constitution. In commemoration, on November 25, 2023, the NCC unit of GCW (A) Guntur, in collaboration with the Department of Political Science, Guntur, organized an awareness program in the Assembly Hall for all GCW students, regardless of their academic group or discipline. Esteemed guests Sri PSP Suresh Kumar, Vice-President of the AP High Court Advocate Association and Smt. N. Sarada Mani, Special Public Prosecutor of Guntur graced the occasion. They delivered enlightening speeches highlighting the significance of understanding our constitution and underscored Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's pivotal role in its ratification. The event also provided a platform for students to express their views on contemporary law and order issues and discuss citizens' responsibilities in fostering societal peace. 55 NCC cadets actively participated in the programme, championing Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's principles of equality and affirmative action by spreading his messages.

Outcome: Heightened awareness and appreciation of India's democratic values and constitutional rights among cadets. Cadets develop a deeper understanding of the significance of the Constitution in shaping the nation's governance and laws.

Activity 17: NCC Day Celebrations

Objectives: To celebrate the inception of the National Cadet Corps and acknowledge its impactful contributions to the nation, the event seeks to foster a sense of pride and unity among cadets. It aims to strengthen their dedication to the NCC's principles and values.

Description: NCC Day is an annual celebration observed nationwide on the fourth Sunday of November. These festivities serve to nurture a sense of unity and fellowship among cadets, underscoring the pivotal role of the NCC in molding future leaders and responsible citizens. The occasion also acknowledges and honors the significant contributions of the National Cadet Corps in promoting discipline, leadership, and national integration. Ten of our NCC cadets from GCW, along with the Associate NCC Officer (ANO), participated in the NCC Day celebrations organized by NCC Guntur group at syamala Nagar, Guntur. The cadets actively engaged in the various programs held at URC near group Guntur Gp HQ and were commended for their dedicated efforts in NCC, receiving mementos and medals as recognition. Additionally, our Associate NCC Officer, Lt. Dr. B. Latha, was presented with a Commendation Card by the Commanding Officer in acknowledgment of her exemplary services in the NCC.

Outcome: The occasion ignited a surge in pride and motivation among cadets, fostering a deeper connection to the organization's heritage and principles. In essence, it served as a platform to uplift the cadets by recognizing cadet's achievements and fortify their commitment to the organization's core values.

Activity 18: Observation of World AIDS Day

Objectives: To raise awareness about HIV/AIDS among cadets and the broader community and to promote understanding, compassion, and support for individuals affected by HIV/AIDS

Description: The observance of World AIDS Day seeks to reduce stigma and discrimination associated with HIV/AIDS, fostering a more inclusive and supportive environment. Ultimately, it empowers cadets to become advocates for HIV/AIDS prevention, education, and support. This type of awareness activities related to social service are designed to motivate and inspire cadets to actively contribute to the betterment of their social and physical surroundings and to focus their energies on the mission of nation-building. The theme of World AIDS Day in 2023 was "Let communities lead" gives us a chance to look at how far we've come in fighting AIDS, to talk about the problems we still need to solve, and to get everyone involved in working harder to end AIDS by 2030. Towards spreading this awareness, the college's NCC, NSS, and Red Ribbon Club units worked together with the DMHO in Guntur. District civil judge and District legal services Authority secretary Judge Leelavathi garu acted as chief guest of the program and Medical officers of GGH, ICDS, NGOs also actively participated in the programme. As part of the program a rally is also conducted from collector office to GCW. Placards promoting Aids prevention were displayed by cadets to raise public awareness. Through this demonstration, the cadets and students urged the public to get treated and prevent HIV. 37 NCC cadets have participated in this activity.

Outcome: The activity successfully raised awareness about HIV/AIDS among cadets and the broader community. Through the involvement of various organizations such as NCC, NSS, and the Red Ribbon Club, along with the participation of medical officers and NGOs, information about prevention, treatment, and support services was disseminated effectively

Activity 20:Voters Day Celebrations

Objectives: To promote voter awareness, education, and participation among cadets and the wider community. It aims to highlight the significance of democratic rights and responsibilities, encouraging cadets to become informed and active citizens

Description: National Voter's Day is celebrated annually on 25th January in India to honor the foundation day of the Election Commission of India. Instituted by the Government of India, its primary aim is to inspire greater participation of young voters in the democratic process. This initiative not only motivates the youth to engage in elections but also underscores the significance of voting as a fundamental right. On the occasion of the 14th National Voters Day celebration on 25 January 2024, the NCC unit of GCW, in collaboration with the Political Science Department of GCW(A), Guntur, organized an awareness program involving 40 NCC cadets in various awareness activities within and around the college premises. Our college NCC cadets and students actively participated in district-level elocution, essay writing, Rangoli, and quiz competitions conducted by the Political Science Department. As part of this endeavour, NCC cadets organized a rally from the college campus to the collectorate, brandishing placards and chanting slogans highlighting the importance of voting. Additionally, they attended the National Voter's Day festivities hosted by the District Collector, Sri M. Venugopal Reddy, IAS, at the collectorate. During the event, the cadets received insights from the District Collector regarding the rights and responsibilities of citizens, the electoral process, voter registration procedures, etc. The winners of the elocution, essay writing, Rangoli, and quiz competitions received prizes from the District Collector, Joint Collector, and DIG of Police.

Outcome: The activities undertaken on the occasion of National Voter's Day underscored the vital role of youth in shaping the democratic process and fostering active citizenship within the community. Cadets got motivated by the recognition received from the District Collector, Joint Collector, and DIG of Police for their contributions in promoting voter awareness affirmed the success and impact of the endeavor.

Activity 21: Republic Day Contingent at GCW

Objectives: To celebrate national festivals as a token of gratitude to the freedom fighters and to inculcate the spirit of national integration and communal harmony among the cadets.

Description: Every year NCC cadets take pride in celebrating national festivals like Republic Day and Independence Day as a token of gratitude to the freedom fighters. On January 26, 2024 as India is celebrating its 75th Republic Day which has significance as it was on January 26th 1950, the Indian Constitution came into effect. It is this Constitution of India that makes our country a sovereign, secular and democratic nation. On the auspicious morning of 26th Jan, 2024 our college celebrated Republic Day in front of LADY HOPE theatre of Govt. College for Women (A), Guntur. The college Principal Dr. V. R. Jyotsna Kumari unfurled the national flag followed by the parade displayed by the NCC cadets. A contingent of 21 cadets performed parade drill by saluting the national flag. Total 58 NCC cadets have participated in Republic day celebrations at GCW. 9 NCC cadets participated at district level Republic day parade at Police Parade Grounds, Guntur

Outcome: In total around 500 strength including teaching, non-teaching fraternity, students and 67 NCC cadets celebrated this national festival at GCW (A), Guntur.
